

A CHILDHOOD FALL CAN TRIGGER MAJOR DENTAL ISSUES

Wl'm sorry if the title of this article scared you. I don't want to be an alarmist! But at the same time, it's incredibly important every parent knows just how dangerous a playground fall can be for a young, growing child. Even if your kiddo bounces back and runs off like nothing happened, even a stumble can cause serious damage to their face ... CONTINUE READING

GET YOUR CONFIDENT SMILE BACK!

Missing teeth can affect your speech, chewing patterns, and bone strength and rob you of your confident smile. Because of this, it can hinder you from engaging with others and living your life to the fullest. However, not all hope is lost! You can get your bright smile back with the help of dental implants ... CONTINUE READING

HOW TO KEEP CHILDREN ENGAGED OVER SUMMER BREAK

Your kids are probably looking forward to sleeping in, staying up past their bedtime, and having no homework or tests now that school's out for summer. This seasonal break is an excellent time for your children to decompress and rest until the next school year, but it's also imperative that they don't forget everything they learned during the school year ...
